

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the expected attire for students?

Attendees can wear their uniforms or smart casual attire depending on the school's requirements for field excursions.

Will there be any food?

Morning tea will be offered during the day, but students will be required to purchase or bring their own lunches and additional snacks. Unfortunately, specific dietary requirements cannot be catered for.

Can students bring a chaperone from the school?

If students feel more comfortable with a school appointed chaperone, they are more than welcome to accompany the students. Please inform us when registering.

How do I pay the registration fee?

Payment instructions are on the registration form. Only direct debit payment will be processed; cash or other payment types on the day will not be accepted.

Can you hold places for the session?

Unfortunately, due to space constraints, only attendees that confirm with registration with fee payment will be accepted. Spaces will not be reserved on good faith.
